Through citizenship, leadership and community service learning activities, young people learn how their actions (such as voting, participating in community service activities, writing letters to their legislators and taking action on an issue important to them) can help them understand how to make a difference. In the process, they learn life skills, understand themselves, learn to learn, communicate better, make positive decisions and learn to get along and work well with both youth adults.

A. 4-H Project Work – What workshops / trainings have you participated in specific to citizenship

8 ½ by 11 inch page, one sided

Points to remember when working on your photo page.

- Choose no fewer than 4 or 5 photos. There is no maximum number but use common sense. Do not use a collage of photos – it's just not professional.
- The photos you choose should represent your club. Choose a few from your clubs early years, and a few that are recent. Just be sure that the photos relate directly to the project area that you are applying to receive recognition.
- Photos should be clear, color is best if possible. Trim photos when appropriate.
